C. HOW WE OBTAIN DATA

We obtain Data in a variety of ways, for example when You fill in the necessary Data to download and use the App and Services or contact Us directly by email concerning the use of the App or Services or from Your other transactions or experiences with Us. We also collect data generated by your use of the App or Services, such as remote access of devices, user administration and use of the App and related incidental data such as time stamps, WiFi signal level, battery level and software version. We will also gather data when the Yale Connect Hub and App connects to our server (including to offload data). You understand and consent that the Yale Connect Hub and components will transmit any and all of the Data it collected from its use when it connects to the server, irrespective of whether or not you sign-in and/or use the App. In addition to data you provide to us, we use cookies to remember your preferences. A cookie is a small file, typically consisting of numbers and letters, downloaded on to the Device when You [access certain areas of our Service]. Cookies allow the website to identify the Device and by analyzing the data from cookies we can improve our website and the associated user experience. Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies or to delete cookies already stored in your computer, laptop, mobile phone or other such device. Blocking or deleting cookies will, however, have a negative impact the performance or receipt of Services.

Online Tracking: We do not track users across third party sites and [do/do not] respond to Do Not Track settings in your browser, and we do not respond to Do Not Track signals. Do Not Track is a preference you can set in your browser to let the websites you visit know that you do not want them collecting certain information about you. Third parties that have content embedded on our websites or App such as a social feature may set cookies on a user’s browser and/or obtain information about the fact that a web browser visited a specific website from a certain IP address. Third parties cannot collect any other personally identifiable information from us unless you provide it to them directly.

D. WITH WHOM WE MAY SHARE DATA

We may share the Data with other companies in the ASSA ABLOY group, as well as certain trusted business partners and third party service providers to enable them to perform functions of the Services and to process Data on Our behalf, in accordance with the purposes in Section B above. We do not sell or trade the Data that personally identifies You or collect or use Your Personal Information for advertising purposes without your consent. We may share statistical or aggregated Data that does not personally identify our users with advertisers, business partners and other third parties to help us improve our Services.

We do not control, and are not responsible for, the privacy and data security practices of these third parties. However, We will take reasonable steps to require such third parties to use the Data only for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy and in accordance with applicable law.

If applicable, Data may also be transferred to:

- Local or foreign regulators, governments and law enforcement authorities, including tax collection agencies and stock or other exchanges;
- Local and foreign courts, tribunals, arbitrators or other judicial committees;
- Persons to whom We may assign or transfer Our rights or duties under this agreement or under any other agreement We may have with or concerning You;
- Persons in connection with any sale, merger, acquisition, disposal, reorganization or similar change of Our business (including any potential or actual purchaser of that business and that purchaser's advisors);
- Third parties, if so required to comply with mandatory legal or regulatory requirements; and
- Address fraud, data security, safety or technical issues.

E. PERIOD OF RETENTION AND USE

We will retain the Data for as long as we deem for us to support the relevant activity in your in your Account or provide the Services, or for as long as we are lawfully required to do so. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, we are not obligated to retain any data for any period and do not guarantee the storage of any Data related to your Account. Data which is personally identifying will be destroyed if:

- The purpose of collection and use of Data has been achieved and the Data is no longer needed for our business requirements or under applicable law;
- The business for the Services concerned is discontinued; or
- You withdraw Your consent to the collection of Data by contacting Us (for contact information please see Section 8 below).

F. Transfer of Data

Processing of Data may therefore take place in countries other than Your home country. Data collected in the European Economic Area (the "EEA"), may be stored, processed or transferred outside of the EEA, as described in this Privacy Policy. The destination country may not offer the same level of protection of the Data as the country where You are located and may only provide you with fewer legal rights in relation to the Data. However, We will only process the Data as described in this Privacy Policy and use Our efforts to handle the Data securely and in accordance with applicable data protection rules. You expressly consent to Your information being used as set out herein.

G. Security

We use reasonable measures to secure data that is transmitted to and from the Yale Connect Hub and Devices and the App, including encryption. Unfortunately, transmission via the internet is not completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the security of Data transmitted to Our Services and when using the App. You are responsible for protecting the Device against unauthorized access and use, and any transmission of Data will be at Your own risk. Once we have the Data, we will take commercially reasonable precautions to protect it from loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. Despite the protective measures we put in place, You understand that no data security measure can guarantee complete security at all times.

H. Children

The Services are not directed to children under the age of 13, and We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If you are under the age of 13, please do not attempt to register with us at this Site or provide any personal information about yourself to us. If you are a Parent or legal guardian and choose to share Your Account with a child, you acknowledge, you will provide us with acceptable written consent for the use of your Account by your child and you agree that we may collect Data relating to your child's use of the Services solely in accordance with the terms of this Policy.

I. Changes

We may amend this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will use reasonable efforts to notify You before such change, through the Service. We will notify You (via e-mail or the App) to get Your consent before collecting any additional personally-identifying Data or materially changing Our uses or sharing of Data that is personally-identifying. As to all other changes to this Policy, we will publish a notice through the Service of the changes to the policy; by continuing to use the Services after a reasonable period to such notification, You are expressly acknowledging and accepting such changes. If we change this Privacy Policy we will post the revised Privacy Policy on our website and will indicate the revised Policy's version number and effective date.

J. Your rights to Access and Correct the Data

The accuracy of the information We hold about You is important to Us. You have the right to access the information We hold about You and have any inaccuracies corrected. Any access request may be subject to a fee to meet Our costs in providing You with details of the information we hold about You.

Information on how to access data about You which we store can be obtained at support@yaleconnecthub.com.

If any of the information We hold about You is inaccurate, please let Us know by emailing Us (for contact information please see Section L below). We will respond within a reasonable period of time upon verification of Your identity. Please note that in accordance with Section E above (Period of Retention and Use) we do not guarantee the storage of your Data.

K. Your rights regarding Your Personal Information

Except as described in this Privacy Policy, We do not sell or trade Personal Information or collect or use it for advertising purposes. You have the right to ask Us not to process Your Personal Information for marketing purposes. We will inform You (before collecting Your Data that is personally-identifying) if We intend to use the Data for such purposes or if We intend to disclose it to any third party for such purposes. You can exercise Your right to prevent such processing at any time by contacting Us (for contact information please see Section 8 below).
